Proclamation*

*State Capitol
Boise*

WHEREAS, Idahoans understand that in order to have peace, they must defend freedom; and

WHEREAS, peace is an active process that embraces the deepest hopes of all people, and remains humanity's guiding inspiration; and

WHEREAS, we recognize that an enduring peace is our most important national interest, as well as a core value; and

WHEREAS, peaceful unity, understanding and cooperation among nations is essential to the freedom of all; and

WHEREAS, we share the vision of a day when humanity knows only peace among all nations and in every heart;

WHEREAS, we are proud to join the rest of our nation and people from around the world in avowing our deepest commitment to peace in our homes, our communities and across the globe;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho do hereby proclaim September 21, 2007 as

IDAHO PEACE DAY

*IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand
